DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1, 4-6, and 8-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Hillman, US Patent 5,997,649.

Hillman teaches a CVD apparatus that includes: a processing chamber 10 with an inner space 20; a gas feed member 68 for supplying a gas into the chamber; an metal diffuser 44 partitioning the inner space of the chamber into a first and second partitions, having a plurality of holes, and includes an extension overlapping a surface of a quartz insulating frame 52; the ceramic insulating frame is disposed in between the chamber and the diffuser, and located on the upper surface of the extension; and an RF source 60 connected to the diffuser and the pedestal is grounded. (Entire document, specifically Figure 1) The specific substrate processed is an intended use of the apparatus and the apparatus of Hillman can inherently process any desired substrate.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 2, 3, 7, 11 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hillman, US Patent 5,997,649 in view of Zhao et al, US Patent 5,558,717.

Hillman was discussed above.

Hillman differs from the present invention in that Hillman does not teach that the extension is an "L" shape, the metal diffuser is made out of aluminum, or a blocking plate.

Zhao et al teaches an aluminum diffuser having an "L" shape extension and a blocking plate.

The motivation for making the diffuser of Hillman out of aluminum is to provide a specific metal from which to make the diffuser as taught by Zhao et al.

The motivation of making the extension of "L" shaped is to provide an alternate shape. Furthermore, it has been held that a change in shape is a matter of choice, which a person of ordinary skill in the art would have found obvious. (See In re Dailey, 357 F.2d 669, 149 USPQ 47 (CCPA 1966) MPEP 2144.04(d))

The motivation for adding a blocking plate to the apparatus of Hillman is to more uniformly distribute the processing gases as taught by Zhao et al.

Therefore it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to make the diffuser of Hillman out of aluminum, to make the extension "L" shaped, and add the diffuser as taught by Zhao et al.
